TRAVEL PROTECTION PROGRAM: If a guest is unable to travel due to illness or other health issues, The Upper Class Travel Protection program provides a refund for the cost of any trip, minus the price of the Protection, which is 10% of the tour cost. The refund will be made upon receipt of a doctor's note. The note must state that, based on an office visit, the guest was not able to travel. The note must be signed by the doctor and dated on or before the trip's departure date. Claims must be received within 14 days after the departure date of the tour and are available for cancellations due to medical reasons only. Once purchased, it is non-refundable and non-transferable. To be fair to all guests, we do not make exceptions to this policy.

CANCELLATION POLICY: Guests may cancel reservations up to 30 days prior to departure on a one-day motor coach tour and 90 days prior to departure on a multi-day tour for a credit of the tour cost minus any unrecoverable charges (i.e. Theater tickets). There will be no credit for any cancellation made after this time, unless The Upper Class Travel Protection has been purchased and the Travel Protection terms have been complied with. Credits are valid for 12 months from the date issued. To be fair to all guests, we do not make exceptions to this policy.
