

St. Leon Men's Fellowship Presents

NEW DOCTA
INTERNATIONAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

Abajian Hall
Friday, October 3 at 7:00 PM

Enjoy this rare opportunity to experience uplifting music with your Family and Friends.

Join us for an evening of breathtaking music from world-class chamber musicians trained at the finest schools and conservatories. Share in their vision of using classical music and its power of expression to open the minds of people of all ages and backgrounds as well as teach and inspire musical talent with particular emphasis on the youth and underprivileged.

Led by festival co-founders Sami Merdinian, violin, Solange Merdinian, mezzo-soprano, and Yves Dharamraj, cello, the New Docta Artists will perform music ranging from classical masterpieces to Armenian folk songs and Argentinian tangos, offering a thrilling and touching concert experience.

Admission: $25 per person, Limited Seating

Reception: 7:00 to 8:00 PM, Open Wine Bar

*Concert: 8:00 PM Sharp

Meet the Artists

& Refreshments: 9:00 to 10:00 PM

*RSVP: Purchase tickets on-line using the St. Leon Brown Paper Ticket website:
Go to <http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/813860> or call
Ara Hourdajian 201-447-2862 Sandra Shahinian Leitner 201-887-3270*

 Please note the music will begin promptly at 8:00 PM.
As a courtesy to the performers and the audience, late seating will not be offered.*

St. Leon Armenian Church, 12-61 Saddle River Rd, Fair Lawn, NJ 07410

For more information about New Docta visit www.newdocta.org

